WILLIAM W. WIRTZ

PRESIDENT

William Wirtz has taken an active part in hockey and especially the Chicago Blackhawks since his graduation from Brown University in 1950. He continues in his role as President of the Blackhawks, a position he assumed in 1967. However, as time has gone on, Mr. Wirtz has found himself more and more involved in hockey operations on a national and international basis.

Because of his love for the game and special interest in the Blackhawks, Mr. Wirtz is involved not only with the decisions of his own club, but also the decisions that are made on a league level. His opinions are widely respected in the hockey world and he continues in his role as Chairman of the National Hockey League Board of Governors.

Adding to his many duties, Mr. Wirtz must also deal with such matters as player negotiations, proposed expansion, and a multitude of other problems and decisions that must be dealt with on all levels of hockey.

In recognition of the many contributions William Wirtz has made to the game of hockey and to the National Hockey League in particular, he was inducted into the NHL Hall of Fame in 1976, an honor which he treasures highly, joining his father who was inducted in 1971.

Last summer, another honor was bestowed upon Mr. Wirtz when he was also elected into the United States Hockey Hall of Fame for his many contributions to hockey in the U.S., especially to the 1980 Olympic effort. The induction ceremonies were held last October in Eveleth, Minnesota.

Aside from hockey, Mr. Wirtz has a variety of other interests. However, one of his favorite interests is Maryville Academy, a home for underprivileged children. Each year Mr. Wirtz makes time to help the Women of Maryville put together their Las Vegas Night which helps to raise funds that support Maryville Academy.

MICHAEL WIRTZ

VICE PRESIDENT

Michael Wirtz is a valuable asset to the Chicago Blackhawks hockey club because of his knowledge and enthusiasm for the game of hockey and the Blackhawks in particular. A graduate of the Wharton School of Commerce at the University of Pennsylvania, Michael has been Vice President of the Blackhawks since 1958.

Mike works closely with his brother, Bill, and Vice President Tommy Ivan in handling all of the hockey affairs that may develop on a daily basis. He is an extremely dedicated individual who enjoys himself as much as anyone when the team is playing well and who suffers as much as anyone when the team struggles a bit.

Mike is the type of man that every organization needs to run smoothly. When a situation develops on the spur of the moment that requires immediate attention, you will always find Mike putting in the effort to make sure the situation is rectified.

His genuine love and dedication for the sport of hockey is also evident on the youth level as Mike has pitched in to help coach youngsters playing at the Glenview Ice Arena.

Mike and his wife, Sunny, have three children.

THOMAS N. IVAN

VICE PRESIDENT

Tommy Ivan is one of the most respected and knowledgeable people in the game of hockey after having served in almost every capacity in his more than 50 years in the game.

Tommy came to the Chicago Blackhawks organization in 1954 after having won six straight league championships and three Stanley Cups as coach of the Detroit Red Wings. In his 31st year with the Blackhawk organization, he has helped bring the club from virtual obscurity to one of the most respected franchises in the National Hockey League. He managed the team to a Stanley Cup Championship in 1961 and has seen the club reach the finals in 1962, '65, '71, and '73.

Tommy takes special pride in the growth of college hockey in the United States. He was the front runner among the NHL executives in seeing the potential of college hockey as a source of NHL players and has long been a booster of that phase of the sport.

In 1974, Tommy was bestowed the honor of being elected into the NHL Hall of Fame and was recently named Chairman of the United States Hockey Hall of Fame. He was awarded the Lester Patrick Trophy in 1975 for his contributions to hockey in the United States. He is also on the selection committee of the NHL Hall of Fame.

As Chairman of the organizing committee for the 1978-79 Olympic Hockey Festival, Tommy and his committee were instrumental in bringing more than 90 players together for coach Herb Brooks and his staff. That team went on to win the Gold Medal at the 1980 Winter Olympics in Lake Placid.

After 25 years as Blackhawk General Manager, Tommy has served as Vice President and Alternate Governor for the club over the last seven years.

ROBERT J. PULFORD

GENERAL MANAGER/HEAD COACH

Respected as one of the brightest General Managers in the National Hockey League, Bob Pulford has proven that he takes a back seat to no one when it comes to putting a winning hockey team on the ice. In three of the last four seasons, the Blackhawks have made it into the semi-final round in Stanley Cup play. This season, Pulford will also take on the added duties of head coach.

Pulford began his coaching career with the Los Angeles Kings where he coached for five seasons before joining the Blackhawks in 1977. He was named the NHL's "Coach of the Year" with the Kings in 1974-75 and was bestowed that same honor by the Hockey News in 1977-78 as coach of the Blackhawks.

Pulford concentrated on his role as General Manager at the start of the 1982-83 season and remained strictly in that capacity until February 4th of last season when he again found himself behind the Blackhawk bench. In the remaining 27 games of last season, Pulford coached the club to a 17-6-4 record and into the semi-finals in Stanley Cup competition. Pulford's lifetime coaching record is a testimonial to his coaching ability as he has posted a 279-234-108.

Pulford, along with Assistant General Manager Jack Davison and the Blackhawks scouting staff, are responsible for putting together the young talent that comprises the Chicago Blackhawk roster. Through many hours of hard work and dedication, they are striving to achieve the ultimate goal which is to bring Chicago its first Stanley Cup championship since 1961.

"Pully" is a quiet and reserved individual who is as intense in his preparation for the game today as he was when he was playing. He has not lost his competitive spirit and is able to convey that to his players. He is also respected among his players for his keen knowledge of the game and his ability to convey that knowledge to his players.

Bob, his wife Roslyn, and their three children, Rob, Lindsay, and Jennifer, reside in the northern suburbs.

JACK DAVISON

ASSISTANT GENERAL MANAGER

In over 20 years in the Chicago Blackhawk organization, Jack Davison's knowledge of the game of hockey has been invaluable in bringing excellent young talent to Chicago. Having played or coached at every level of hockey has made Jack one of the most respected judges of talent among executives in the NHL.

Davison is heavily involved in the player personnel end of the organization. He coordinates the Blackhawks scouting efforts and directs the NHL draft each summer. He works closely with the Blackhawk scouting department to make sure that every level of scouting is adhered to and every possible prospect is watched. In fact, sometimes Jack has been known to see as many as three games on a given day.

Jack makes his headquarters in Toronto while also spending a fair amount of time in Chicago during the season. This season, however, he may be spending even more time in Chitown to help out while Bob Pulford takes on the added responsibility of coaching.

Perhaps one of the reasons that Davison has such a good eye for talent is that he was an excellent athlete in his playing days. Jack had a baseball tryout in the Braves' organization as a first baseman and is an excellent golfer having played some on the pro circuit. He does not have as much time to devote to golf any more as his time is taken up by seeking out new talent for the Blackhawks.

In making the semi-finals in Stanley Cup competition for three of the last four years, Bob Pulford and Jack Davison have proven they are a potent 1-2 combination in the National Hockey League and in sports management today.

Jack and his wife Isobel have three children and reside in Toronto.

ROGER NEILSON

CO-COACH

Bringing a most astute knowledge of the game to Chicago, Roger Neilson returns to the Blackhawks for his second season in the role of co-coach to Bob Pulford for the 1985-86 season. A genuine student of the game of hockey, Neilson brought a new approach to the Blackhawks last season that was in great part responsible for the team's success in advancing to the semi-finals in Stanley Cup play.

Roger does extensive work with videotapes throughout the season and uses it to his advantage as far as scouting an upcoming opponent and using it to dissect an opponent's special teams. Neilson also uses the tapes to map out the Blackhawks power play strategy and how they can be most effective in killing penalties against certain opponents.

Neilson joined the pro coaching ranks in 1976 when he coached the Dallas Blackhawks in the Central Hockey League. The following season he took over as head coach of the Toronto Maple Leafs. After two seasons in Toronto, Neilson joined the Buffalo Sabres where he eventually became the head coach and then the Vancouver Canucks where in 1982 he led his club into the Stanley Cup Finals. In fact, Chicago fans will remember the 1982 semi-final series against Vancouver when Roger Neilson coached against Bob Pulford for the right to advance into the finals.

After brief stints with Los Angeles and Edmonton, the Blackhawks were fortunate enough to land Neilson as an assistant coach last season. There is no question that his excellent knowledge of the game of hockey make him a candidate for another head coaching position sometime in the future.

Neilson and his sidekick, Mike, a beautiful labrador dog, split the off season between a hockey school in Port Hope, Ontario, and a cabin on a lake near Peterborough.

CLIFF KOROLL

ASSISTANT COACH

After a short stint as head coach of the Milwaukee Admirals of the International Hockey League last season, Cliff Koroll rejoins the Blackhawks as assistant coach for the upcoming 1985-86 season.

A graduate of Denver University, Koroll was one of the early players to make it into the NHL from the college ranks. He had a very distinguished career in the NHL having played 11 seasons and scoring 208 goals to go along with 254 assists for 462 points before hanging up his skates following the 1979-80 season.

Following his playing career, Koroll served as assistant coach for four seasons under Keith Magnuson, Bob Pulford, and Orval Tessier. At the beginning of last season, Koroll was the head coach of the Blackhawks farm team in Milwaukee. However, a mid-season shakeup found Koroll coming back to the parent club to team up with Bob Pulford and Roger Neilson. The trio was responsible in helping to turn the club around to a second place finish in the Norris Division and a successful playoff performance.

Koroll is a very dedicated individual who has done whatever the Blackhawk organization has asked of him. This season, part of Koroll's responsibilities will be to work with the young wingers on the team in trying to help them develop their skills as two way hockey players. Koroll has also shown his expert knowledge of the game when asked to do advance scouting. His thorough advance scouting reports have been extremely helpful in preparing for upcoming opponents.

To his credit, Koroll has been a very versatile individual who has been willing to learn every facet of the game. Working with such individuals as Bob Pulford and Roger Neilson this season can only serve to enhance his knowledge and expand his hockey horizons.

Cliff and his wife Lynnae have three children: Jason, C.J., and Amanda. The Korolls reside in the western suburbs

- CHARLES "SKIP" THAYER

TRAINER

Thayer begins his seventeenth season with the Chicago Blackhawks having joined the organization in 1969. After lettering in football at Colby College in 1961, Skip decided to pursue the training end of sports more vigorously.

While attending the University of Maine, Skip began to get practical experience as a student trainer at Colby College. Upon graduation, Thayer went to work in athletic therapy at Indiana University, where he also received his Masters Degree.

Thayer taught physical education at Nichols College in Dudley, Massachusetts, for two years before joining the Blackhawks in 1969. Since coming into the NHL, Skip has made his mark both on and off the ice. He was one of the original organizers of the National Hockey League Trainers Association of which he is now the President.

Thayer is a registered EMT/Paramedic and during the off season he works for Paramedic Services of Illinois out of the Franklin Park Fire Department.

Skip has four sons, Scott 22, Stephan 18, Greg 15, and Matthew 6. He, his wife Pat, and their son Matthew make their home in the western suburbs.

- LOU VARGA

TRAINER

Lou Varga came to the Chicago Blackhawks organization in 1969 and is also entering his seventeenth season. After having played semi pro hockey in Windsor, Ontario, and realizing his career was nearing an impasse, Varga decided to stay involved in hockey through another avenue.

Louie got his start in hockey as a stickboy in the early 1960's for the Blackhawks farm club in Buffalo. He eventually became the trainer for the St. Louis Braves of the Central Hockey League in 1964. Varga moved with that club to Dallas which was a farm club of the Blackhawks in 1967 paving the way for his move to Chicago in 1969.

Varga has also had some experience in other sports having done some work for the St. Louis Football Cardinals. In fact, Louie had the opportunity to go to work for the Atlanta Falcons of the National Football League in the late 1960s but decided to stay in hockey.

Varga has an interest in another hockey team aside from the Blackhawks, as his son, John, plays for the Addison Flames. At the age of 11, it will take a little while before he can be drafted into the NHL, but there is nothing Louie would like better than to be able to set up a locker for his son in the Blackhawk dressing room.

Louie, his wife Helen, and their son John reside in the western suburbs.

RANDY LACEY

Although he has been with the Blackhawk organization since 1972, Randy Lacey joins the parent club this season to assist Skip Thayer and Lou Varga. Hailing from Toronto, Ontario, Lacey had an unusual way of getting into hockey.

While working at an automotive plant in Barrie, he was asked to do some part-time work for the Barrie Flyers hockey club. After a while, he was put in touch with Jack Davison who was with the Blackhawk organization. What started out as just a part-time position suddenly turned into full-time employment.

Lacey started in the Blackhawk chain at Dallas of the Central Hockey League in 1972-73. He brought Dallas good luck as they won the Adams Cup in Lacey's first year with the team. He stayed with Dallas for five years and in 1976 worked with current Blackhawk co-coach Roger Neilson.

Randy moved with the team as they went to Moncton, New Brunswick of the American Hockey League. He worked there for four seasons and in 1981 Moncton won the Calder Cup. While there, Lacey worked under the likes of Eddie Johnston, Joe Crozier, Lou Angotti, Doug Carpenter, and Orval Tessier.

The next three seasons saw Lacey moving with the club to Springfield, Massachusetts, for two years of American Hockey League action and then to Milwaukee in the International League last year where he worked with current Blackhawk assistant coach Cliff Koroll. After thirteen seasons in the Blackhawk fold, Lacey is overjoyed to finally be a part of the big club in Chicago.

Randy, his wife Mona, and their five-year-old daughter Jessica make their home in Cocagne, New Brunswick in the off season.

MURRAY BANNERMAN

GOALTENDER

Shoots Left 5'11" 185 lbs.

Born:

Ft. Francis, Ontario

April 27, 1957

30

Now in his sixth season as a member of the Chicago Black Hawks, Bannerman has firmly established himself as one of the NHL's most respected goaltenders. Having played in 75% of the Hawks' regular season games last year, his 27-25-4 record and 3.83 goals against average were major factors in bringing the Hawks to a second place finish in the Norris Division, up from fourth the previous season. His 27 wins was 5th best among goaltenders in the National Hockey League last year.

Bannerman began his career with Chicago at the Hawks' New Brunswick farm club after a brief stint with the Vancouver Canucks. Originally Vancouver's 5th round selection in the 1977 Amateur Draft, Bannerman came to Chicago on November 4, 1977 in exchange for Pit Martin.

Murray's stability in the nets has earned him a reputation as a workhorse. Chicago's fine showing in last year's playoffs saw Bannerman appear in all 15 contests. A sweep of Detroit, and impressive overtime victories over their Norris Division nemesis the Minnesota North Stars led the Hawks to the Campbell Conference Finals for the third time in four years.

Bannerman's progress has been solid coming along behind the likes of Vezina/Calder trophy winner Tony Esposito, and gradually Murray was worked into the lineup. After just 15 appearances in his first season, he has gone on to set new career highs every season thereafter. 1984-85 was no exception with his 60 games played totaling 3371 minutes. Only 3 NHL goaltenders played more minutes last season, only 2 played in more games and only 1 faced more shots.

Murray and his wife Liz bought a home on a 2 acre site in the western suburbs last year to accommodate both their love for horses and their growing family; they have a son Dana and new daughter Lana, born this past summer.

MARC BERGEVIN

2

DEFENSEMAN

Shoots: Left 6'0" 185 lbs.

Born:

Montreal, Quebec

August 11, 1965

Truly the surprise of the 1984 training camp, Marc Bergevin impressed the Blackhawks enough to be placed on the permanent roster for the 1984-85 season. Originally a third round selection by Chicago in the 1983 draft, Marc played just 7 games at the end of the '83-'84 season for Springfield of the American Hockey League. Bergevin displayed solid defensive skills at training camp and was tapped to play his rookie year at just 19 years old. And his performance has not been disappointing. Look for good things to come from this fine young defenseman.

Bergevin is a product of the Quebec Major Junior Hockey League where he played two seasons with Chicoutimi. 1983-84 was his best season there, as he scored 10 goals and 35 assists for 45 points in 70 games.

Marc displays all the basic defensive skills one might expect from a professional, however he has a particular talent when it comes to the body check. On more than one occasion last season, Bergevin could be found on the giving end of a fierce open ice check, leaving the receiving opponent dazed, if not upended. Marc has also shown he can stand up in front of the net and clear the puck, as well as be a catalyst to an offensive surge. In 60 games played, Marc recorded 6 assists during the regular season. He also added 3 assists to a fine 1985 playoff effort.

Mark spends the summer back home in St. Placide, Quebec. He is single and resides in the western suburbs during the season.

KEITH BROWN

DEFENSEMAN

Shoots: Right 6'1" 191 lbs.

Born:

Cornerbrook, Newfoundland

May 6, 1960

4

Keith Brown has a dedication to the game of hockey and to his team that is apparent in spite of the injuries that have cut into three of his last four seasons with the Blackhawks. Entering his sixth season in a Chicago uniform, Keith is a versatile defenseman and can often play the part of catalyst in a successful offensive rush. He finished last season as the team's third highest scoring defenseman, with 23 points in 56 games.

Brown had earned excellent credentials in three seasons with the Portland Winter Hawks of the Western Hockey League, such as WHL Rookie of the Year 1978, WHL Top Defenseman 1979 and WHL First All-Star Team 1979, before being selected number one by Chicago in the 1979 entry draft. Keith showed his worth by making the team when he was 19 years old, during his first invitation to Blackhawks' training camp.

While injuries hindered Brown during the '84-'85 regular season, he struggled through and went on to help his team in the playoffs scoring 9 points in 11 games. There is little argument that Keith is one of the strongest members of the team and with his strength continues to make his presence felt around the National Hockey League.

Keith prefers the relaxation of golf during the off-season. His wife Debbie has quite a talent for arts and crafts, and the couple make their home in the western suburbs.

JEROME DUPONT

Shoots: Left 6'3" 201 lbs.
Born:
Ottawa, Ontario
February 21, 1962

1984-85 was Jerome Dupont's first complete season with the Chicago Blackhawks as his steady improvement earned him a permanent position on the roster. Jerome exemplifies the qualities of a strong work ethic and exhibits an ever-present willingness to learn. Often staying on the ice at the end of a formal practice to work on some part of his game, Dupont is convicted to bettering his craft. Continuing in this vein only means a long career in the National Hockey League.

Jerome was Chicago's first round draft selection (15th overall) in the 1980 entry draft. After finishing his junior hockey with the Toronto Marlboros, Dupont spent three seasons in the Blackhawks' system. His experience was divided between the Springfield farm team of the American Hockey League and the parent club before finally making it into a Hawk jersey for good last year.

While an injury kept Dupont off the ice for nearly a month during the '84-'85 season, he returned with conviction wanting to get right back into the swing of things. He went on to score 3 goals during the remainder of the season as he got more playing time, and slowly built up some confidence. He added 10 assists during the course of the season for a total of 13 points. As injury hit the Hawks' defense during their Stanley Cup playoff drive, Dupont was relied upon heavily appearing in all 15 games. He lived up to the task recording 2 assists.

Jerome and his wife Caroline both spent this past summer in school. While Jerome takes classes for a degree in accounting, Caroline is working toward her masters in exercise physiology. They've been married just over a year and moved into a home in the western suburbs last season.

Fraser is coming off his best season yet as a member of the Chicago Blackhawks. After a knee injury kept him out of most of the '83-'84 season, Curt is back to playing 70+ games during the regular season. 1984-85 marked his most productive effort since being acquired by Chicago in a 1983 trade with the Canucks which sent Tony Tanti to Vancouver. Fraser's 25 goals and 25 assists for 50 points is the 2nd best season total he has had as an NHL player.

But to get the best picture of the type of hockey player Curt Fraser is one must look beyond just point totals. If the mental part of the game could be measured with statistics—Curt would surely be among the leaders in the NHL. Coming off of knee surgery during the '83-'84 season, he showed no sign of letting up or overprotecting himself. Fraser pushed even harder to make up for lost time and when a broken cheekbone sent him to the sidelines last year, he miraculously returned after missing just 7 games.

During most of the '84-'85 campaign Fraser's linemates were center Troy Murray and right wing Eddie Olczyk and together they were dubbed the "Clydesdale Line" as they each weigh in at close to 200 pounds. His aggressive attitude, coupled with his strength and desire, helped to propel the Hawks into a very successful playoff drive last year.

Though U.S. born, Curt moved to Canada at an early age where his love for hockey developed. He has made North Vancouver his home and returns there each summer where he enjoys water sports and the great outdoors.

BILL GARDNER

CENTER/LEFT WING
Born:
Toronto, Ontario
March 19, 1960

Gardner is coming off his best season in the National Hockey League having set new personal career highs of 34 assists and 51 points. Now entering his fifth professional season Bill's generalized aptitude for the game of hockey has had him filling many roles as a Blackhawk. One might look at him as Chicago's "utility man" as he has played center and left wing, killed penalties and participated on the power play team. Perhaps it is just this ability to adjust to each situation that has made him such a valuable member of the club.

Billy's talents were first exhibited in three seasons with the Peterborough Petes of the Ontario Major Junior Hockey League. The Blackhawks selected him in the third round of the 1979 entry draft. "Gards" became a full-fledged Blackhawk for the 1981-82 season, after just one season with Chicago's New Brunswick AHL farm club.

Up until last season, Bill Gardner had been able to elude the major pitfall of any professional team sport—injury. Helping his team reach the final four in Stanley Cup playoff competition, he sustained a knee injury during last year's Campbell Conference finals and required surgery. Bill's competitive spirit is evident both on and off the ice. While his summers are usually filled with golf and softball, he spent this past one rehabilitating through therapy and exercise to be ready for the 1985-86 season.

Bill's wife Kathy is taking classes toward a career in business and devotes some of her spare time to work with charitable organizations. The Gardners live in the western suburbs.

Shoots: Left 5'10" 189 lbs.
Born:
Peterborough, Ontario
June 16, 1961

28

Steve Larmer continues to be one of the most dependable contributors to the Chicago Blackhawks' success since his NHL Rookie of the Year season three years ago. A tribute to durability Steve is the only member of the team to have played the entire 80 game regular season schedule for the past three years.

38 goals, 44 assists and 82 points with New Brunswick of the American Hockey League in 1981-82, prompted the Blackhawks to give the nod to their sixth round, 1980 entry draft selection. The opportunity made way for Larmer's memorable splash on to the NHL scene, as he was named the NHL's Rookie of the Year for a 43 goal, 47 assist, 90 point performance with Chicago in 1982-83.

Having scored 35 or more goals in each of the last three seasons, Larmer is consistently among his team's top scoring leaders. Steve's 46 goals in the '84-'85 season led the team and was a new personal career high, as well as a club record for most goals by a right winger in a single season. True to form Larmer's 14 regular season, and 5 playoff, power play goals were team highs this past year. Six game winning goals last season doubled his previous output and tied for the club lead in '84-'85. With his impressive totals last year, Steve surpassed the career 100 mark in both goals (124) and assists (128) while eclipsing the 200 mark in total points (262). Steve has never finished below second place on the team in the categories of goals and points as he and linemate Denis Savard have enjoyed juggling those top spots over the past few years.

Steve's wife Rose enjoyed organizing the Hawk wives last year in their annual effort to raise money for Maryville-City of Youth, as they held the 6th successful Las Vegas Night. The couple have a home in the western suburbs.

STEVE LUDZIK

29

CENTER

Shoots: Left 5'11" 186 lbs.

Born:

Toronto, Ontario

April 3, 1962

Steve Ludzik put together his most productive season in a Blackhawk uniform this past year setting new personal career highs with 11 goals and 31 points in 79 regular season games. He then scored a goal and an assist while playing in all 15 games of Chicago's playoff drive. Once again he was called upon to perform at more than one position and in various situations, truly earning him the right to be called a team player.

Never one to back away from an opponent, Steve is more than an offensive threat on the ice. His head is always in the game so that he is ready to fill-in whenever he receives the nod. Ludzik is just 12 points shy of the 100 career point mark as a pro, as he enters his fourth professional season in Chicago.

Steve was in good company when he was chosen in the third round of the 1980 entry draft as Denis Savard, Steve Larmer and Troy Murray were also selected by Chicago that year. Just one good season with New Brunswick of the American Hockey League, during which he was called up by the Hawks for eight NHL games, led Ludzik to a successful training camp and he made the parent club for the 1982-83 season.

Steve and his wife Mary Ann have been married just over a year and live in the western suburbs.

TOM LYSIAK

Shoots: Left 6'1" 204 lbs.

Born:

High Prairie, Alberta

April 22, 1953

12

Tom Lysiak has more than just a veteran's knowledge of the game of hockey. His positive attitude makes him more valuable than 12 years of National Hockey League statistics may prove. In 74 regular season games last year, Tommy played on a line with one of the fastest players on the team and another of the most experienced players, making them a constant but often unsuspected threat to their opponents. Last season Lysiak scored 16 goals and 30 assists for 46 regular season points, and became a real factor during Chicago's 15 playoff games where he contributed 4 goals and added 8 assists to a total effort of 21 goals and 20 assists by Tommy and his linemates.

Lysiak has been in a Hawk uniform since March 13, 1979 when he was part of an eight player trade with the Atlanta Flames. The Flames had selected him in the first round of the 1973 Amateur Draft and he made the pros at his first invitation to training camp prior to the 1973-74 season. In twelve seasons of NHL hockey Tommy has had his share of milestones, the most recent coming when he passed the 800 career point mark on January 21, 1985. He is just the 39th player in NHL history to have reached that total. Lysiak is just 10 goals away from reaching the 300 career goal mark and with 32 more turns on the ice will pass the 900 mark in games played.

This past summer, the Lysiaks became proud parents when Melinda gave birth to Jessica Lee in July. The family spends the off-season soaking up the southern sun on their farm in Georgia where Tom also enjoys a little hunting and fishing.

BOB MURRAY

6

DEFENSEMAN

Shoots: Right 5'10" 186 lbs.

Born:

Kingston, Ontario
November 26, 1954

Stable, durable, versatile, dependable—just this short list of Bob Murray's better qualities shows why the Chicago Blackhawks have enjoyed the envy of many other National Hockey League teams during the 10 year career of this outstanding defenseman. "Murph" hasn't missed more than ten regular season games throughout eight of ten professional seasons. Drafted by Chicago in the third round of the 1974 Amateur Draft, he has been a Blackhawk longer than any of his current teammates.

Often filling the role of acting captain for the team Murray is afforded the utmost respect, by both players and officials, for his ability to smooth over an altercation or make known a protest, as the situation demands. This natural aptitude for negotiation also carries over off the ice as Bob represents the Hawk players to the National Hockey League's Players Association.

Murph's talents as a first string, two-way-type defenseman have long been admired in the NHL. Taking the body and clearing the puck are abilities that he exhibits right in stride with taking the puck up ice on the attack and covering the point on the power play. This past season he finished second in scoring among Hawk defesemen with 5 goals and 38 assists for 43 points in his first complete 80-game regular season. And although it seemed like it would never come, Bob passed the 100 career mark in goals last year and is now on the verge of 400 career points, just 24 shy.

When he is away from hockey, Bob enjoys spending time with his wife Patty and three children—Kevin, Amanda and Andrew, in their home in the northwest suburbs.

TROY MURRAY

CENTER

Shoots: Right 6'1" 195 lbs.

Born:

Calgary, Alberta

July 31, 1962

19

Having completed his first full 80-game season for the Chicago Blackhawks, Troy Murray's contribution to the club has been more than just being there. Coming off his best performance in the National Hockey League, Troy's 26 goals, 40 assists and 66 points were all personal career highs for him. He had 6 power play goals and finished 4th overall in his team's scoring during the regular season. His 4 shorthanded goals led the club, while his 6 game winning goals tied him for the lead among his teammates. This past season left little doubt that Troy Murray can do it all, and so he does!

Troy was selected in the third round of a talent-packed 1980 entry draft. Two years of NCAA hockey at the University of North Dakota netted him Rookie of the Year honors in 1981 and an NCAA Championship in 1982. Troy was also a major factor in leading the 1981 Canadian junior team to it's first world championship since the early 1950's. As Troy enters his fourth professional season as a member of the Chicago Blackhawks, he hopes to continue his history of winning, starting now.

Back at full strength after an injury during the 1983-84 season, Murray combined with two other 190+ pound forwards, Curt Fraser and Eddie Olczyk, to create the "Clydesdale Line". Their collective presence on the ice was felt to the tune of 71 goals, 95 assists, 166 points and a constant physical threat that earned them new respect in the NHL.

Troy is single, enjoys a trip home to St. Albert, Alberta each summer and lives in the western suburbs during the season.

JACK O'CALLAHAN

5

DEFENSEMAN

Shoots: Right 6'1" 189 lbs.

Born:

Charlestown, Massachusetts

July 24, 1957

Jack O'Callahan truly turned on the talent this past 1984-85 season for the Chicago Blackhawks. While best evidenced by his career high 3 goals and 5 assists in 15 playoff appearances, Jack worked hard all year alongside all the Hawk defensemen to help the team to the Stanley Cup semi-finals. Jack's 6 regular season goals were also a personal career high. A shoulder injury caused him to miss several regular season games, but O'Callahan was ready when called and was depended upon heavily in the playoffs.

Originally Chicago's sixth round draft selection in 1977, Jack chose to remain in college playing three years for Boston University. In 1979 he joined the United States Olympic Team and was one of the heralded gold medal winners at the Winter games in Lake Placid in 1980. A two year stint in the Blackhawks farm system with New Brunswick and a split year in '82-'83 between Springfield and Chicago led O'Callahan to the parent club for good in 1983-84.

Jack's defensive talents were fine tuned last year when he was paired with the veterans and able to work on being more flexible—taking the body and clearing the puck, but also moving up with the play and being part of an offensive threat.

A new addition to the O'Callahan's west suburban household was the highlight of this past summer as daughter Rachael Rose was born to Stacey and Jack in July.

ED OLCZYK

Born:
Chicago, Illinois
August 16, 1966

16

Olczyk got his first taste of professional hockey last season marking his rookie performance as a member of the Chicago Blackhawks and the youngest National Hockey League player of 1984-85, just 18 years old. Eddie's debut was a memorable one, as he scored his first NHL goal while playing in the first game of the season on October 11, 1984 before a truly hometown crowd in Chicago Stadium.

A native of the Chicago area, he was the first American born player to be drafted number one by his native city. The Blackhawks selected Olczyk number one (3rd overall) in the 1984 entry draft. And while last year may have been his first in the NHL, Eddie is far from inexperienced.

At just 16 years of age, Olczyk made the difficult decision to leave his family and the U.S., taking the advice to seek out the tougher competition to be found in Canada. He played junior hockey with Stratford, before being the youngest player ever to be selected to the United States Olympic hockey team, still just 16. Olczyk travelled with Team USA to Sarajevo in 1984 and his performance earned him the notice and respect of all who saw the games, including the NHL scouts. Following the Olympics Olczyk was pursued by many other NHL clubs, before the Hawks formulated a deal enabling Chicago to draft him.

Olczyk spent the early part of last year getting comfortable at the wing position, having played center for most of his hockey career. Eddie played much of the '84-'85 season on a line that was dubbed "the Clydesdales", as along with center Troy Murray and left wing Curt Fraser each player weighs in at around 200 pounds. The group used size to their advantage and Olczyk contributed 20 goals and 30 assists in 70 games. His 50 points ranked him 10th overall among rookies for the '84-'85 season. Eddie's playoff performance of 6 goals and 5 assists placed him 2nd among NHL rookies in overall playoff scoring. He recorded his team's only shorthanded goal and was 1st above all rookies in goals scored during the playoffs.

This past summer the golf tournaments and softball games kept Eddie busy, as did a stint as coach at the National Sports Festival in Baton Rouge, Louisiana. Eddie is single and resides in the southwest suburbs.

RICK PATERSON

CENTER/RIGHT WING
Shoots: Right 5'9" 187 lbs.

Born:
Kingston, Ontario
February 10, 1958

Rick Paterson is one Chicago player who truly exemplifies the qualities of drive, desire and team work that are essential to a successful club. While his role during five seasons as a Blackhawk has varied somewhat, his attitude has never wavered. Paterson has played in all but 8 games over the last three seasons. His contributions to the team effort are best exhibited by his flexible role on the forward line and a keen offensive instinct for penalty killing, as evidenced by 3 short-handed goals scored last year. Rick scored two of those just 2 minutes and 30 seconds apart versus Winnipeg on January 16, 1985 setting a new club record for the fastest two shorthanded goals by a Blackhawk player.

Rick was selected by the Blackhawks in the third round of the 1978 entry draft and worked hard to come back from several trips to the minors. He never lost sight of what he wanted and made it into a Hawk jersey for good during the 1980-81 season.

Rick's adaptability has given Chicago a little breathing room during the last few seasons when injury cut into their line-up. Often called upon in a fill-in capacity at center and right wing, Rick posted 7 goals and a career high 12 assists for a total of 19 points during the '84-'85 regular season—while helping the playoff effort with a goal and 5 assists in 15 appearances.

Rick spends as much of his free time as possible on the golf course over the summer. During the season, his wife Anne enjoys working with the other Hawk wives on their annual charity event to benefit Maryville-City of Youth. The Patersons live in the western suburbs.

DENIS SAVARD

CENTER

Shoots: Right 5'10" 167 lbs.

Born:

Pt. Gatineau, Quebec

February 4, 1961

18

This past season, Denis Savard topped 100 points for the third time in his career, but "Savvy" has been a team leader in more than just scoring during his last five years in a Blackhawk uniform. He creates scoring chances where it might have looked as though none existed. He puts in goal after goal from bad angles where most players wouldn't even make the attempt. He fakes out skater and goaltender alike with his bursts of speed and his deceptive moves—turning an opponent in circles with his now patented "spin-o-rama". Denis' ability to excite the crowd and enthuse his teammates often leads the team back into a game even when there didn't seem to be a chance of victory.

Savard's scoring statistics, however, must be recognized for the outstanding marks that they are. Since being chosen number one by Chicago in the 1980 draft, Denis has led the Blackhawks in scoring for the past four consecutive seasons. Once again last year, he topped his own personal single season high for goals scored with 38, and added 67 assists for 105 total points. Denis scored hat tricks on three separate occasions last year.

In the all-time Blackhawk record book, Savard already comes in as the leader with—most 100 point or more seasons (3), most consecutive 100 point or more seasons (2), most assists in a season (87), most points in a season (121), most points in one playoff year (29) and, most assists in one playoff year (20). He stands in line for first place in many other categories as Savard is now ranked 12th among Chicago's lifetime leaders with 170 career goals, 5th all-time among Chicago assist leaders with 344, and 8th in career total points with 514. And he has racked up all these marks in just five seasons with the Blackhawks.

Denis enjoys a day at the racetrack when he can find the time—and is probably one of the only members of the team to have a race-horse named after him. Savard lives in the western suburbs during the season, while a home near Montreal is his summer getaway.

AL SECOND

Shoots: Left 6'1" 212 lbs.
Born:
Sudbury, Ontario
March 3, 1958

Al Second looks to accomplish one major feat in a Hawks' uniform this season—and that is to stay in his uniform all season long. After spending two consecutive seasons abbreviated due to injury, an 80-game year may be just what the doctor ordered. A look at Al's previous contributions—44 and 54 goal seasons before meeting with injury—justify a positive outlook that a healthy Second means a productive Second. Coming back to score 8 goals and 5 assists at the end of the '84-'85 season and going on to help the playoff effort in all 15 games with 7 goals and 9 assists, was extremely encouraging. This past summer has been one of dedicated activity for Al, including daily three hour workouts and cycling every other day, all in preparation for what he hopes is his best season yet.

Second has been a Blackhawk since December 19, 1980 when a trade with Boston brought Al to Chicago and sent defenseman Mike O'Connell to the Bruins. Al was originally Boston's number one draft choice in 1978 and he played two and a half seasons for the Bruins.

Al's stop-and-start career has not kept him completely out of the Blackhawks' record book as he is still one of just two Chicago players in the team's history to have scored 50 or more goals in one season. Al is one-third of the Blackhawks' most productive line ever when in '82-'83 he joined teammates Denis Savard and Steve Larmer to score the most goals by a line in a season (132) and most points by a line in a season (297). Second's 20 career playoff goals rank him 9th on the all-time Hawk list.

Al and his wife Vicki were married just one week after the Hawks' final playoff game last May. With time out for a short trip to Al's hometown in Ontario, the Seconds have spent a busy summer remodeling and redecorating their home in the western suburbs.

WARREN SKORODENSKI

Shoots: Left 5'8" 165 lbs.

Born:

Winnipeg, Manitoba

March 22, 1960

1

Warren Skorodenski spent his first complete season in the National Hockey League last year as Chicago's number one backup goaltender. In 27 games played during the regular season, "Skoro" posted a 3.22 goals against average in his rookie year good enough for 5th place overall among NHL goaltenders.

While Skorodenski may have spent very little time in the NHL before last year, he was anything but inexperienced. Originally signed as a free agent by Chicago in August of 1979, he had played the two years previous with the Calgary Wranglers of the Western Hockey League. Under the direction of the Blackhawks, Skoro has played for Flint of the International Hockey League, Birmingham of the Central Hockey League, and New Brunswick, Springfield, and Sherbrooke all of the American Hockey League. He enjoyed his best minor league season at New Brunswick in 1981-82 when his 2.55 goals against average earned him a share, along with teammate Bob Janecyk, of the Holmes Memorial Trophy as the AHL's top goaltender.

Warren's role last season was not relegated merely to being Chicago's key relief man for a busy Murray Bannerman, as his statistics speak louder than that. His rookie performance earned him a very respectable 11-9-3 record in the 1984-85 season. He recorded his first two career shutouts, one in Hartford on November 17, 1984 and the other versus New Jersey on April 3, 1985, tying him for 2nd place among many more seasoned colleagues. And with 762 saves in 850 attempts, Warren Skorodenski's .902 was the best overall save percentage in the National Hockey League during the '84-'85 season.

Warren and his wife Laura spend their summers in Calgary, Alberta and live in the western suburbs during the season.

DARRYL SUTTER

Shoots: Left 5'11" 176 lbs.

Born:
Viking, Alberta
August 19, 1958

The resiliency of Blackhawk left wings was once again tested, and proven, this past year. Darryl Sutter, who suffered a broken ankle during the 1984-85 season, came back in record time to be a key to his team's success in the 1985 Stanley Cup playoffs. Unfortunately, the situation seemed all too familiar to Sutter as he had also encountered injury the previous year. But the Blackhawk team captain's consistently remarkable recoveries have been nothing short of the persevering attitude and positive influence one continues to expect from him game after game, year after year.

The priceless Sutter determination is known league-wide. Darryl has five brothers who also take this dedication to the ice—wearing the uniforms of St. Louis, Philadelphia, and the New York Islanders. Darryl was the family's second pro, having been selected by Chicago in the eleventh round of the 1978 Amateur Draft. But as the NHL came to know the strong drive and desire that became associated with the Sutters through older brothers Brian and Darryl, each of the four following brothers was selected in the first round of his respective draft.

The 1984-85 regular season was somewhat of a struggle for Darryl and yet he still managed to reach the 20 goal mark for the 5th consecutive season. Sutter's stellar performance in the playoffs hinted nothing of the injuries that had shortened his season. Darryl's 12 playoff goals broke Bobby Hull's club record for most goals in one playoff year. And in the hard-fought Norris Division Finals against the rival Minnesota North Stars—two remarkable Sutter overtime goals gave the Blackhawks the series victory and gave Darryl the club record for most overtime goals in one playoff series.

Darryl had more than just a few new scars to show off when he went home this past summer. He and his wife Wanda proudly introduced their first child, Jessica Dawn, to all her uncles and the rest of the family at the farm in Viking, Alberta. Jessica, who was born in between playoff games last spring, and her parents make their home in the western suburbs during the hockey season.

BEHN WILSON

Shoots: Left 6'3" 210 lbs.

Born:

Toronto, Ontario

December 19, 1958

23

There are very few players remaining in the National Hockey League who haven't been made aware of Behn Wilson. Whether it is a forward who has tried, in vain, to find a position in front of the Chicago net; or a defenseman who has suddenly found Wilson on the attack in the offensive zone; or a goaltender who has had to face Behn's shot from the point—let the record show that Behn Wilson is a force to be reckoned with.

Having completed his second season with the Chicago Blackhawks, Wilson has been filling his role as a strong man who sweeps the area in front of the Chicago net clean. Now in his eighth professional year, Behn was Philadelphia's first round selection (6th overall) in the 1978 amateur draft. He was traded to the Blackhawks on June 8, 1983 as Chicago dealt Doug Crossman and a 1984 second round draft choice to the Flyers.

Wilson played nearly every game last season for Chicago and though the defensive pairings varied during the season, Behn's contribution remained steady. He scored 10 goals during the course of the season, for the 5th time in his career, and his 23 assists placed him right on the 200 career assist plateau. He is just 21 points shy of the 300 career point mark. Behn came through with 4 goals and 5 assists for 9 points in last year's playoffs, when he was depended upon heavily due to injuries to his teammates.

Behn and his wife Patti have two daughters, one year old Beth and Amy, who was born during last season. Behn and all the Wilson ladies spend summers in their home near Philadelphia, while residing in the western suburbs during the season.

DOUG WILSON

DEFENSEMAN
Shoots: Left 6'1" 187 lbs.
Born:
Ottawa, Ontario
July 5, 1957

There is little that any young hockey player couldn't learn by watching, and listening to, Doug Wilson. His talent for the game is partner to his dedication. On and off the ice Doug Wilson is a hockey player that would make proud any coach, team or league that he might represent. Having been selected to play in four consecutive NHL All-Star games, Doug's ability and attitude are well respected by his colleagues. Wilson puts on the Blackhawk uniform for his ninth season, once again giving Chicago one of the finest all-around defensemen in the National Hockey League today.

Chicago's number one draft selection (6th overall) in the 1977 Amateur Draft, Wilson has acquired a Norris Trophy and a first team All-Star selection, in addition to many club records, since claiming a spot on the roster at his first attempt prior to the start of the 1977-78 season. Doug has a reputation for a blinding, low slapshot from the point that is usually deadly to an unsuspecting goaltender—and few goaltenders now remain who haven't felt victim.

Doug missed just 2 games during the '84-'85 season, scoring 22 goals for his highest such output since the '81-'82 Norris Trophy season. 54 regular season assists was a personal career high, and it broke his own record, set in 1982-83, for most assists by a Blackhawk defenseman in a season. Doug's contribution to the Hawks' '85 playoffs was far more extensive than the 3 goals and 10 assists that are recorded in the stat books. A selfless player who places the team ahead of everything else, Doug played in 3 of 5 games in the Campbell Conference finals while truly injured. Such a contribution could never be recorded on the scoreboard, however the inspiration he created was reflected by the extra effort exhibited by the entire team.

The Wilson's were able to move into their newly built home this past year, and Kathy has enjoyed doing all the necessary decorating. Doug and Kathy have also been busy keeping up with their daughter Lacey Anne who will be 2 years old in February.

KEN YAREMCHUK

Shoots: Right 5'11" 187 lbs.

Born:

Edmonton, Alberta

January 1, 1964

15

Entering his third professional season in the National Hockey League Ken Yaremchuk hasn't slowed down since first stepping on the ice in a Blackhawk uniform at just 19 years of age. He has raced through two years of pro hockey experience and reached the ripe old age of 21. Ken now looks forward to combining the valuable knowledge he has gained with his more seasoned skills. With his natural ability to speed past opponents as if they were standing still, Kenny hopes to put together his most productive year ever.

Yaremchuk was Chicago's number one draft choice (7th overall) in the 1982 entry draft. He spent three years in the Western Hockey League where he reached the 50+ goal mark and scored 130+ points in each year of his tenure with the Portland Winter Hawks. Statistics aside, Kenny's talents were no doubt an important key to the winning of the 1983 Memorial Cup during his final year at Portland. It was following this impressive performance that the Blackhawks decided to keep Yaremchuk with the parent club for the 1983-84 season, forgoing his final year of junior eligibility.

Often paired with two veterans last season, Kenny worked hard at moving the puck from the wing position and looking for the open pass as well as the open shot. At the same time he kept his linemates on their toes with frequent bursts of speed that had the crowds cheering, but the opponents frustrated in trying to stay with him. Ken doubled his previous year's point total by scoring 10 goals and 16 assists for 26 points in the '84-'85 season. With 5 goals and 5 assists in the playoffs—Yaremchuk set personal career high marks in every stat category during both regular and post-season play.

Ken is single and lives in the western suburbs during the season, while heading home to Edmonton, Alberta for the summer months.

BRUCE CASSIDY

3

Shoots: Left 5'11" 176 lbs.

Born:

Ottawa, Ontario

May 20, 1965

Bruce was Chicago's first round pick (18th overall) in the 1983 entry draft. Though abbreviated, this past season with Ottawa was still representative of the type of play Bruce is capable of. In just 27 games he scored 13 goals and 27 assists for 40 points. In three seasons with Ottawa, Cassidy has totalled 256 points in 155 games for an average of 1.65 points per game.

DAN FRAWLEY

Shoots: Right 6'0" 170 lbs.

Born:

Sturgeon Falls, Ontario

June 2, 1962

22

Frawley was a 15th round selection by the Chicago Blackhawks in the 1980 entry draft. While he may have been the last chosen that year, he has proven that last does not have to mean least. Frawley has worked long and hard toward every hockey player's goal—to play in the NHL. Dan got his best shot last season when he was called upon to play 30 games in a Blackhawks' jersey.

JEFF LARMER

Shoots: Left 5'10" 179 lbs.

Born:

Peterborough, Ontario

November 10, 1962

10

Larmer joined his brother Steve as a member of the Chicago Blackhawks on January 12, 1984 when Tim Higgins was dealt to the Devils. Jeff played 36 games for Chicago that year scoring 9 goals and 13 assists for 22 points. This past season he spent an abbreviated season with the Hawks' Milwaukee farm club and though he missed almost a third of the Admirals' games with a broken jaw, still tallied 24 goals and 37 assists for 61 points in as many games.

WAYNE PRESLEY

Shoots: Right 5'11" 172 lbs.

Born:
Detroit, Michigan
March 23, 1965

Last season, Wayne started out with Kitchener, but was traded late in the year to Sault Ste. Marie. While playing a total of only 41 games in the OHL during the 1984-85 season, Presley still managed 30 goals and 30 assists for 60 points on the year. Wayne also got his first taste of the NHL last year as he was called up for three games during the season. He had his first NHL point, an assist, on January 26, 1985 in Toronto.

BILL WATSON

Shoots: Left 6'1" 190 lbs.

Born:
Pine Falls, Manitoba
March 30, 1964

Signed to a multi-year contract this past summer, the Blackhawks look to a promising future for this 1985 Hobey Baker Award winner. Dubbed the best college hockey player last year, Watson turned in a fine performance at the University of Minnesota-Duluth to earn the distinction. In just 46 games Watson broke school records scoring 49 goals and 60 assists for a total of 109 points during the '84-'85 season.

PAT FOLEY

BROADCASTER

Entering his sixth year at the microphone for the Chicago Blackhawks, Pat Foley has truly established himself on the hockey scene with a contagious enthusiasm that has become his trademark. Foley now enjoys a dual role as the play-by-play voice for both Hawks' radio and T.V. Pat, 31, was born and raised in the northern suburbs where the family business, Foley Motor Sales of Wilmette, was founded over 50 years ago. Along with all young Chicago fans, Pat remembers listening to his all-time favorite announcer, Lloyd Pettit, who was the "voice" of the Blackhawks for many years. Foley gained broadcasting experience first, at Michigan State University with the baseball and hockey teams, and later hooked up with the Grand Rapids Owls of the International Hockey League. It was Hawks' V.P. Michael Wirtz who first heard Foley's Owls tapes and recommended Pat for the job with the Blackhawks. Foley has taken that opportunity and really created a name for himself in Chicago. With imitation the sincerest form of flattery, Pat is often overwhelmed by the attempts of fans to copy his well-known rendition of "Baaaaa-nerman". Pat's pastimes include golf and softball. He is single and makes his home in Glenview.

DALE TALLON

BROADCASTER

Dale Tallon begins his fourth year handling color analysis for the Chicago Blackhawks' telecasts. Tallon added radio to his resume and admirers to his following last season when the Hawks instituted TV/radio simulcasts of their games. Dale's keen insight and descriptive style is a true asset to the programs for listeners and viewers alike. Part of that knowledge and ability comes from his personal experience of the game as a 10 year NHL veteran. Dale was the Vancouver Canucks' number one selection in the 1970 draft and came to the Hawks in 1973 when Jerry Korab and Gary Smith were traded to Vancouver. After 5 years with Chicago, Tallon finished his playing career with Pittsburgh following the 1979-80 season. Dale's easy-going nature and wry sense of humor spill over into the telecasts. His own enjoyment of the game and what he is doing is part of the chemistry between Tallon and Foley, as they have quickly become one of the most enjoyable pairs in the NHL. If time would permit it, Dale would commute from Southeast Florida to do the Hawks' telecasts. The climate and the golf in that area are part of his lifeblood these days and he spends as much free time as possible enjoying both.

Adams Division

Boston Bruins
Buffalo Sabres
Hartford Whalers
Montreal Canadiens
Quebec Nordiques

SCHEDULE:

Each of the 21 teams will play an 80-game schedule with those teams in The Smythe, Norris and Adams Divisions having eight games (four home, four away) against each of their Divisional opponents, plus three games against each of the remaining 16 teams in the League. In the case of the three games against the remaining clubs, teams will play two home, one away or vice-versa, alternating the extra home game each year.

The six clubs in the Patrick Division—New Jersey, New York Islanders, New York Rangers, Philadelphia, Pittsburgh and Washington—will play each other seven times with three games against each of the remaining 15 teams. The home-ice differential will be alternated each season.

STANLEY CUP PLAYOFFS:

At the conclusion of the regular schedule, the top four finishers in each of the Divisions will qualify for the Stanley Cup playoffs.

The division semi-finals will have the first place club oppose the fourth-place team and second versus third in a best-of-five series. The winners of each series will play a best-of-seven division final series with the team gaining higher standing during the regular-season holding home-ice advantage.

The four divisional winners will meet in a best-of-seven Conference Championship series. The Smythe Division winner will face the Norris Division champion, while the Patrick Division victor will oppose the Adams Division winner. The Conference winner will meet in a best-of-seven final series for the Stanley Cup.

Home-ice advantage for the conference finals and the Stanley Cup finals will be determined by the team that had the most points during regular season play.
